Brussels for Breakfast (55): A breakfast discussion meeting on EU regulatory issues, with Graham Bishop (grahambishop.com) and Nicolas Veron (Bruegel/Peterson Institute). To be held on Wednesday, February 24, from 8:30-10:00 am.

NOTE: Change of Venue

For this month's meeting, our guest speaker is (once again) Nicolas Veron – an increasingly grand fromage on the euro-scene, as senior fellow at Bruegel in Brussels, and now as a visiting fellow at the Peterson Institute in Washington. He specialises in financial regulation/supervision and financial reporting and has recently written extensively in the FT and WSJ – as well as having a regular column in the La Tribune.

As usual, our Chief Guide is Graham Bishop – of grahambishop.com - who is one of the UK's leading euro-watchers. Between the two of them, Graham and Nicolas should make sure we don't miss anything.

Plus, as always, this is expected to be a sharing experience – one in which participants almost all bring something to the table in terms of special knowledge or interests. So if you (or a colleague) would like to come along, you will be more than welcome – just let us know by emailing sophie@csfi.org.uk or by telephoning 020 7493 0173. As usual, coffee, tea and buns will be provided

Sincerely yours,

Andrew Hilton
